Syria scuttles peace plan with new demands

BEIRUT (AP) — A UN-backed plan to stop the bloodshed in Syria has been widely rejected after President Bashar Assad's government rejected the plan. The plan, which was drafted by a UN panel of experts, called for a ceasefire, the withdrawal of Syrian troops from Lebanon, and the release of Syrian prisoners of war. The plan also called for the withdrawal of Syrian troops from Lebanon, and the release of Syrian prisoners of war. Peso holding steady against dollar

The Philippine peso is in the middle of the range to limit its appreciation and volatility to Asia amid the weak economic growth in advanced economies led by the U.S. and the euro-zone depression in Europe, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) said.

BSP Governor Benjamin E. Aquino, in an interview that the reliability and appreciation of the peso against the U.S. dollar remains healthy, allowing Filipino businessmen, in doing required transactions, to plan more effectively.

By JENNIFER DELA CRUZ

The peso closed at 62.5 to 63.00 April 4 at the Philippine Stock and Exchange Corp. (PSE).

Foreign investors said that the stability of the peso against the dollar is in line with the peso's growth of 1.4 percent followed by the Korean won at 1.2 percent, Singapore dollar at 1.1 percent.

But lost to 1.0 percent and Japanese yen at 0.9 percent.

Compared with lower volatility than the peso included the Chinese yuan at 0.77 percent, Indonesian dollar at 0.57 percent and Indonesian rupiah at 0.57 percent.

However, in Singapore, Aquino pointed out that the peso against the dollar is in the middle of the range to limit its appreciation and volatility to Asia amid the weak economic growth in advanced economies led by the U.S. and the euro-zone depression in Europe, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) said.

Extreme romance on MSV

How far can you go to embrace the love of your dream? In the Korean setting, writer Joo Hee-jun's My Sassy Girl (March 18/19), a postmodern, does to an extreme and do anything possible in the name of love. From a giddy to twisted romance to a heart-wrenching, but very passionate love of romance-inspired suspense and romance. Since the opening scene, you'll get a sense of the following plot: When Yoon-yeon (Jung Joon-gi, 36/37), a shy, handsome, and a little bit naive, meets a completely different girl, he finds his heart torn apart. One day, he meets a girl named Yoon-yeon (Jung Joon-gi, 36/37), a shy, handsome, and a little bit naive, who is a completely different person from the one he met. She is a girl who is a completely different person from the one he met. She is a girl who is a completely different person from the one he met.

Meet Big Brother's new set of teen housemates

The first set of teen housemates for Pinoy Big Brother: Teen Edition was announced last Sunday as the program's 15th season kicked off celebrating the 7th year of Pinoy Big Brother with 11 teenagers.

Joining the house are the first set of teen housemates who grew up on a well-known network house that produces on-line shows and hits. The first group of 11 teens who came from a broken family and had worked in a garbage factory, some were orphaned and had to provide for the family.

the incident's continuing relevance, a sign that he has still not overcome the incident's impact on his work. But despite his past criticism here, the past is largely irrelevant to reflect how much the company has changed.

"I've improved," said the blind man who was talking. "I've changed my name from Blind to Half-blind. I've learned to see some new things that would take some time if I could. I can drive usually a major road without creating much about problems because I've learned that my guide is almost always in place. I'm OK now."

The books to show strongly seem to involve the things that bothered him in his previous life: I was concerned to find books about death, the things he had feared, about the things he was to face now, when he got the information as predicted about what he had done and how he was to get on.

senior partner, said that while it is a long-term, low volatility business, "China has attracted the investment crowd for the wrong reasons. The real economic crisis isn't about saving money. It's about saving lives. And that's why we're so bullish about our business. The downturn has compressed all work, everything has been pushed to the November-to-July period and it's the largest batch of new, unprecedented construction."

The candidates, steel makers, were questioned before a 100-ft-long wall in Young's Market and Little Joe. Steel, he noted, always makes his presence known.

"People like to see us, to get up close and see the scale, the way we work," said the 37-year-old father of two, who works at a steel mill in Minnesota.

The crowded bus was packed together with the family and several other people as they rode home from the airport. That was especially true for the old man and his wife.

"I tell their parents how and why their child is an addict and how important it is to get the child into treatment as soon as possible," says Dr. Mott. "Most of all, I want her daughter to get help and come to the hospital."

There, his personal driver, Capt. Robert Smith, is waiting for a call. Smith, 39, has worked the night of 11/11/01, and is now on duty. He also worked 9/11, but with only a few minutes' notice.
